

"Rights, equality and respect are for people, not religions or beliefs. Humanism for me is holding nothing sacred but the human being."

Maryam Namazie
Human rights activist

Horsham Humanists

Discuss, campaign, raise awareness about issues concerning religion and belief, ethics, equality, human rights and science.

How fair is the Big Society?

Damian Brewer, Equalities Officer for Horsham DC, talks about the impact of the Localism Bill.

8pm Wednesday 6th July at Piries Place

We meet in the B52s pub, 19 Piries Place, Horsham, West Sussex RH12 1EH, from 8pm, every first Wednesday of the month.

"I was a humanist without knowing it for many years before I found the Association. When I did, it was like finding a sort of home."

Claire Rayner (1931-2010)
President of the BHA, 1999-2004

www.HorshamHumanists.net
Ring Sarah on 07864 938120

