

There is a City Full of Parents Out There, So Why Struggle Alone?

As parents we are inundated with marketing and advice from others that may not match our own views and feelings.

Am I alone in feeling that way? Is there a better way to bring up my children? What does my faith or my conscience tell me? How do other parents do this?

There are faith, cultural and philosophical perspectives that can help and sharing these may provide mutual support.

You are warmly invited to an event specially designed for parents of young children to share experiences and ideas.

Thursday 24th November 2011

Doors open at 9:30am

Workshops begin at 10:00am

Vegetarian lunch provided from 12:30

You are, of course, welcome to bring your children but you will remain responsible for them at all times.

Venue

Vedic Society Hindu Temple
79-195 Radcliffe Road
Northam, Southampton
SO14 0PS

This is a free event organised by the South East England Faith Forum, funded by the Department for Communities and Local Government and supported by the Southampton Council of Faiths.
